Welcome everyone to our second newsletter for 2020. We normally keep you informed of the activities of the Irish Family History Foundation (IFHF) centres, but due to the current coronavirus pandemic, this is not possible. Instead, this shorter newsletter than usual will update all of our readers on the very exciting recent updates to our website, www.rootsireland.ie.

Cahirciveen, County Kerry

We are also delighted to announce that 61,505 Roman Catholic baptism and marriage records for County Cork have been uploaded to www.rootsireland.ie/cork. Although these parishes are in County Cork, they are actually part of the diocese of Kerry, and are located on our County Cork sub-domain. They are as follows:

- Adrigole (baptisms, 1750-1920; marriages, 1802-1940);
- Allihies (baptisms, 1701-1920; marriages, 1816-1872);
- Boherbue (baptisms, 1703-1920);
- Castletownbere (baptisms, 1690-1920; marriages, 1702-1940);
- Ballydesmond (baptisms, 1850-1915; marriages, 1815-1915);
- Eyeries (baptisms, 1804-1915; marriages, 1823-1931);
- Millstreet (baptisms, 1730-1920; marriages, 1690-1903).

For the list of records all Cork records, and to search these records, go to www.rootsireland.ie/corknortheast

Millstreet, County Cork

ALSO UPLOADED RECENTLY:

- Dublin dog licences, 1923-24. This list contains the names and addresses of about 700 residents in the greater Swords area in 1923-24. It covers Swords, Malahide, Donabate and parts of rural Fingal, and as well as the names of the dog owners, they also provide an insight into various townland names.
- This is in addition to the 30,000 new Kilkenny records uploaded in early 2020.

We will notify those on our mailing list when new records are uploaded and available, so make sure to register to our mailing list to keep abreast with new additions to www.rootsireland.ie

EYE ON COUNTY CENTRES

COVID-19 CRISIS

Due to the Covid-19 outbreak, our centres have been closed until 19 April at least, and most likely for longer. Our centres are continuing to operate their online service, however, so they will be able to serve you online. This is an evolving situation which obviously may change as time passes, but rest assured, the Roots Ireland/Irish Family History Foundation genealogy centres will continue to operate online, ready to serve their customers. Should you have any difficulty contacting one of our centres, please email us directly at enquiries@rootsireland.ie. Please keep yourself and those around you safe. Obviously, Roots Ireland continues to provide its normal service as usual.

ARMAGH ANCESTRY CONFERENCE CANCELLED

The Genealogy Conference scheduled for 8th-10th May 2020 in Armagh has been cancelled due to the Coronavirus. Armagh Ancestry hope to organise a Conference in May 2021 and expect many of the topic and talks to be as advertised for 2020. A full refund will be issued to everyone who has paid and this make take several weeks to appear in your account. Refunds will be paid directly to the Card/account used by the client when booking and if you have not received your refund by mid-April please contact: researcher@armaghbanbridgecraigavon.gov.uk.
